

Special Guest
Major Randy Hicks (R)

Major Randy was born and raised in Windsor Newfoundland and Labrador being the youngest of four siblings and graduating from William Bramwell Booth Memorial High School in 1975. Randy received a B.A. in religious studies from Memorial University Newfoundland and Labrador in 1992

Randy entered The Salvation Army Training College in Newfoundland and Labrador in 1976 as a member of the "Disciples of Jesus" session and was commissioned in 1978.

Randy married Lieutenant Sue-Ann Burry in December 1979. Randy and Sue-Ann have two children - Joey born in 1981 and Keely born in 1984. They are also the proud grandparents of two granddaughters, one born in 2013 and one in 2016.

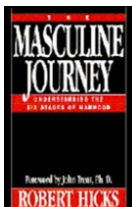

Randy and Sue-Ann have served in both Corps and Youth appointments in Newfoundland and Labrador & Ontario. Their last appointment was 8 years as the Corps Officers of North York Temple leaving there in June 2017.

Presently Randy is the Assistant Director of The Salvation Army Archives for the Canada & Bermuda Territory.

Randy is an avid reader, developing writer, fine speaker, amateur ventriloquist, dramatic storyteller and experienced actor.

Randy will be presenting material based on the book THE MASCULINE JOURNEY by Robert Hicks.

Note Regarding Dietary Needs

The camp is nut aware; they do not prepare or order food with nuts in the ingredient list. Camp can accommodate gluten free, lactose free and vegetarian diets and some food *allergies. For complex allergy and dietary needs we recommend guests augment their meals by bringing their own food, clearly labelled and in a resealable container that can be stored in the camp fridge.
